

(www.hertsatwar.co.uk)

A tall, white, modern cross monument stands against a clear blue sky with a few wispy clouds. The cross is composed of a thick, rectangular vertical shaft and a horizontal crossbar, both with a slightly tapered design. The monument is set on a wide, square, white base. The overall aesthetic is minimalist and contemporary.

Wartime Service:

Killed in action by shell-fire shortly after laying the telephone communications for the Group for the attack on La Boisselle on the Somme.

Additional Information:

Acknowledgments:

Malcolm Lennox

