

(www.hertsatwar.co.uk)

A tall, white, modern cross monument stands against a clear blue sky with a few wispy clouds. The cross is composed of a vertical shaft and a horizontal arm, both with a slightly flared, geometric design. The base of the monument is a wide, square, white pedestal. The overall aesthetic is minimalist and contemporary.

Award:

Cemetery/Memorial: Helles Memorial, Turkey

UK Cemetery/Memorial: Christchurch Memorial, Chorleywood
Memorial Hall Plaque, Chorleywood

Born on 6 Jul 1881 and baptised on 14 Aug 1881 in Cossipore, Calcutta, India son of William and Jane Elizabeth McGlashan and later lived in Chorleywood, Hertfordshire. He married in 1909 in Marylebone, London.

Enlisted at Hounslow and in 1911 was a Corporal of Horse in the Royal Horseguards at Windsor. Entered WW1 at Egypt on 28 Apr 1915 and was killed in action at Gallipoli.

Variouslly written as McGlashan and McGlasham.

Malcolm Lennox

