Wartime Service:

His death is mentioned in the War diaries of The 9th Battalion East Surrey Regiment.

Additional Information:

In June 1997 Broxbourne Borough Council received a suggestion from the Chairman of Goffs Oak Community Association to name roads to commemorate the men who lost their lives in the two world wars that are displayed on the Goffs Oak War Memorial.

It was decided that these names should be used for the large development in Hammond Street Road

This soldier was one of them, Walters Close is named in memory of him.
