Pre War:

He was born in Peckham in Surrey, enlisted in Hitchin and his home was in Knebworth.

He was the husband of Mary Arnold, who address was recorded as 107, Southwold Rd, Upper Clapton, London.

Wartime Service:

His Regimental number was 269157 and he was killed in action in Belgium.

On the day of his death, the 1st Herts were cut to pieces by shot and shell at St. Julien in the Ypres Salient. They had marched from Vlamertinge to their assembly position arriving by midnight on the 30th/31st July 1917. A general bombardment of the German lines commenced at 3.45am on the 31st July and the Hertfordshires left their assembly position at 5.00am and captured St. Julien during the morning. Unfortunately, the promised supporting artillery barrage did not materialise as the guns could not be brought up due to the all-prevailing mud. By noon the Herts had crossed the Steenbeck stream and had come across unbroken wire that prevented any further advance. The German artillery and machine-guns decimated them and by the end of the day the Herts had virtually ceased to exist. Over half the fighting strength of the Battalion, including most of the officers, were killed or wounded in a single day.

He has no known grave and is remembered on Panels 54 and 56 of the great Menin Gate Memorial, Ypres, Belgium.
