Name: Reginald Carter
Rank: Private
Service Number: 266935
Date of Death: 28th November 1918
Age: 23
Regiment/Service: 1st Battalion Hertfordshire Regiment

Award:
Grave/Memorial Reference: IV.M.7
Cemetery/Memorial: Niederzwehren Cemetery, Germany
UK Cemetery/Memorial: Hitchin Territorials' Memorial

Pre War:

He was the son of George Carter of High St. Walkern near Stevenage, Herts. His home was in Walkern but he enlisted in Hertford.

Wartime Service:

He served in 4 company of the Hertfordshire Regiment and his Regimental number was 266935.

He had been taken prisoner and died, probably as a result of the flu epidemic then raging across Europe, at the Niederzwehren Prisoner of War camp in Germany. The date of his capture has not been discovered, but as his name does not appear in the British Red Cross Enquiry List of 1917, he was probably captured at some time during 1918 and most likely in March or April of that year.

He was buried in Plot IV, Row M, Grave 7 of the Niederzwehren Cemetery in Germany.
