

Herts at War

(www.hertsatwar.co.uk)

Name: BALDRY Alfred Joseph
Rank: Rifleman
Service Number: 4791
Date of Death: 18 Sep 1916
Age: 22
Regiment/Service: London Regiment 21st
(County of London) Bn.
(1st Surrey Rifles)

Award:

Grave/Memorial Reference: III. A. 9.

Cemetery/Memorial: Dernancourt Communal Cemetery Extension, France

UK Cemetery/Memorial: Hoddesdon and Rye Park Town Memorial
St Catherine & St Paul's Church, Hoddesdon
St Cuthbert's Church, Rye Park

Pre War:

Born in 1894 in Stoke Newington, London son of William Charles and Carolina (Richardson) Baldry and living with his grandparents in Rye Park, Hoddesdon in 1911 as a plumber. In 1915 he was an engineer's fitter's mate and living in 8 Tennyson Road, Walthamstow.

Wartime Service:

Enlisted on 28 Jan 1916 at Stratford, London, entered France on 7 Aug 1916 and was wounded by a gun shot wound to the abdomen on 15 Sep 1916 at the Somme. He died of his wounds probably in a casualty clearing station in Dernancourt.

Additional Information:

Acknowledgments:

Malcolm Lennox

