A BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

A BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE
BEING A RECORD OF THE
SERVICES OF OLD BOYS AND
MASTERS OF WATFORD
GRAMMAR SCHOOL WHO SERVED IN THE GREAT WAR
1914-1918.

FOREWORD.

An attempt has been made to record, in the following pages, the services rendered to King and Country by Old Boys and Masters of the Watford Grammar School during the Great War.

The book is divided into three sections: the first contains the names of those who gave their lives for their country, the second is an alphabetical list of all who served in His Majesty's Forces, and a list of decorations completes the volume.

“THE SOLDIER.”

If I should die, think only this of me:
That there's some corner of a foreign field
That is for ever England. There shall be
In that rich earth a richer dust concealed;
A dust whom England bore, shaped, made aware,
Gave, once, her flowers to love, her ways to roam,
A body of England's, breathing English air,
Washed by the rivers, blest by suns of home.

And think, this heart, all evil shed away,
A pulse in the eternal mind, no less
Gives somewhere back the thoughts by England given;
Her sights and sounds; dreams happy as her day;
And laughter, learnt of friends; and gentleness,
In hearts at peace, under an English heaven.
